

Welcome to Paradise

In addition to luxurious rooms and elegant dining, La Savanna Hotel and Resort provides amazing views of India's picturesque Jim Corbett National Park. Rudyard Kipling once wrote about the park, "...where man must walk timorously, in awe and with a strong sense of his own insignificance..."

Awake in Awe of the Beauty

A lush forest of sandalwood trees, fruit orchards and wildflowers awaits just beyond the Resort walls. La Savanna is a luxury oasis offering spectacular views of the Ramganga Reservoir. Among the best-located accommodations near the park, our suites are designed to provide comfort and serenity complemented by exemplary service.

Bask in the Luxury

The Resort amenities include a beautiful, heated pool and spa. For the fitness enthusiast, a state-of-the-art workout center is available. The Recreation Center is the social hub of La Savanna, housing a billiards table, board games, cards and a full kitchen for guest use.

Suite Choices

Whether you choose a spacious, standard room or one of our luxury suites, you'll find a spectacular view. All of our suites include a private balcony overlooking the park. Our spacious one-bedroom suite accommodates two people comfortably. The sitting room offers an added area of privacy for reading or meditation. The pinnacle of our one-bedroom accommodations is our open-air suite with privacy curtains leading to the beautiful veranda. This suite provides a sensational view of the Ramganga Reservoir.

Our two-bedroom suite is designed especially for families traveling with children. Create everlasting memories in this expansive space. As with all of our suite accommodations, the sitting room provides a gathering place after a busy day of enjoying the sights. Separate bedrooms provide the much-needed privacy to make the trip as enjoyable as possible for the entire party.

Explore the Area

La Savanna Hotel and Resort is the perfect tourist base. Book a safari; the Amdanda Gate, main entrance to Jim Corbett National Park, is only seven kilometers from your door. Enjoy the nearby Koshi River or jump on a train at the historic Ramnagar Railway Station.

For guests traveling in groups, we have specially designed our four-bedroom suite. Each bedroom is equipped with an extra-large, ultra-plush, queen-size bed. Floor to ceiling windows in the sitting area lead to the fresh air and amazing views of the large balcony. Guests can gather to relax and enjoy the view, and possible tiger sighting, or retire to the large sitting room to socialize and enjoy each other's company.
